"This program is a must-have for institutions that wish to implement videoconferencing into their programs. The presenter gave all the necessary information to successfully integrate interactive videoconference collaborations into the curriculum, without overwhelming the audience with too much technical information."

– Colleen Kramm, Coordinator of Educational Technology, Colonial Intermediate Unit 20, Pennsylvania

Manage Expenditures

Set up a Content Dollar Bank to eliminate payment of multiple bills. Oversee and approve your content programming while CILC manages your videoconferencing expenditures. It's a great solution for preferred vendor policies and using your grant and funding dollars.
